

côt blocked

2021

in the name

côt is an ancient grape that has been served to kings and queens for centuries. landing in argentina in 1868, it soon became celebrated as malbec, in effect blocking the name côt from existence.

lazy river vineyard, similkameen valley. home of this black grape of cawston.

some famous bridge in cahors, the birthplace of côt. we'd remember what it was called, but you know...côt.

our modest winemaker with his finger squarely on the bung of a barrel of côt.

vineyard

lazy river vineyard, similkameen valley

variety

100% malbec

notes

the black wine of cawston. exudes blackberry & sweet tobacco with a hallmark violet note. gorgeously aromatic and light on its feet for a wine of such modest depth.

alc 12.6% | ta 6.7g/L | rs 3.3g/L | pH 3.5 13 months in neutral american & hungarian oak cassoulet. the spiritual accompaniment straight from france to côt wines such as this.

blackberry inspo for your olfactory imagination when crafting a personal tasting note.

SKU 399654-21